Introduction

GST (Goods and Service Tax), a revolutionary step by the Government of India, which has changed the entire tax structure of the country. The new tax regime was implemented from July 1, 2017, and has changed the traditional taxation structure of the country by merging all of the indirect taxes such as VAT, Cess etc into one. The Government of India introduced GST in the country with a slogan of 'One Nation One Tax', which clearly shows that the GOI wants to implement equal tax over every point of the country.

As we all know very well that every new thing takes the time to get in a flow, similarly, this new tax regime will also take the time to get a place in the people's mind in India. For making it easier to understand and to provide each and every update regarding this new tax regime, many IT corporations of the country have launched their mobile applications for GST. The recently launched application, GST Helpline India provide latest updates regarding GST, GST news, GST info and much more, with the help of which you can easily become friends with this revolutionary reform.

Other than this app, there are various way by which you can get answers of your questions.
